Purpose

ACFB has open, fair and transparent procedures that are based on merit for making decisions about: the selection, from among persons including those who are, or would be, entitled to Skills First Funding and/or VET Student Loans assistance undertaking a VET course of study. This policy provides information for domestic students (which include Australian citizens and permanent residents, including permanent humanitarian visa holders) about the admissions to VET course offer by ACFB.

Scope

This procedure applies to the administration, sales and marketing team.

Responsibility

Business Manager	Course Coordinators	Administration Officers
Program Manager	Sales and Marketing Officer	Student Support Office

Policy

ACFB provides training to all eligible domestic students looking to complete courses within our scope of practice as published on www.training.gov.au.

Any applicant wishing to enrol in a course at ACFB must 18 years of age and over. A minimum of year 10 English or equivalent is required prior to commencing any course at ACFB. Applicants are encouraged to contact ACFB prior to enrolment to discuss their course options, study needs, fees, timetables and ACFB's policies.

ACFB abides by the eligibility and suitability requirements of each of its funding arrangements and ensures that all staff involved in the selection, application and enrolment of students are trained as well as meet all professional requirements.

Information provided prior to enrolment

1. All information an applicant requires to understand what is involved in a course prior to enrolment is available to them via ACFB's website. This includes:
 - A cover email with an overview of the chosen course(s) which includes:
 - What the student will learn
 - Study options
 - Practical requirements (in addition to course)
 - Funding and payment options
 - How the student will be assessed
 - Invitation to visit the campus
 - How to enrol
 - An initial course information brochure which includes:
 - List of course units of competency
 - Fees and payment options, including a specific instalment plan (if applicable)
 - Delivery methods
 - Practical requirements
 - Delivery options and duration
 - Entry requirements and Recognition of Prior Learning
 - Outcomes
 - Enrolment forms and Student Handbook - <https://acfb.edu.au/forms/>
 - Core Skills Requirements
 - RPL information
 - VSL information and Policies - <https://acfb.edu.au/vet-student-loans/>
 - Statement of fees (sent to the student)

Student Suitability and Pre-Training Review

To determine an applicant's suitability, ACFB will conduct a pre-training review prior to enrolment with all students looking to enrol. Through our pre-training review we work with each applicant to determine their:

- training and career goals,
- any special learning requirements they may need,
- any potential obstacles that may arise in the pathway to achieving these goals,
- delivery method preference and suitability (to their learning style and life style),
- Has the applicant access to a computer and internet,
- Has the applicant worked in that sector previously,
- What is the highest level of study achieved by the applicant,
- What previous course studies has the applicant completed,
- need for any additional support,
- and further discuss:
 - General course details and guide;
 - Core/elective competency notional times;
 - Fees and admission procedures;
 - Certification gained on completion;

- USI requirements
 - Competency information;
 - Assessment procedures;
 - Enrolment and eligibility requirements including; citizenship, residency and age (if applicable) evidence
 - Any applicable forms/documents, and
- Note; ACFB makes all attempts to hold a face-to-face discussion (on campus) with each applicant (where possible) prior to enrolment to assist them further in their chosen course. If the applicant is required to complete a Core Skills Assessment, this is conducted prior to enrolment.

Academic Suitability

Students must be academically suited to undertake their chosen and approved course and meet any other specified entry requirement for the course.

For enrolments in an Advanced Diploma level course:

- a) ACFB must obtain a copy of a HLT50307/HLT52015 Diploma of Remedial Massage certificate that has been awarded to the student; and
 - b) the course for the qualification was delivered in English.
- and,
- c) ACFB reasonably believes that the student displays that competence;

For enrolments in a VET Student Loans enabled course:

c) the course for the qualification was delivered in English.

or,

- d) the student is assessed[^] as displaying competence at or above Exit Level 1 in the Australian Core Skills Framework in both reading and numeracy using an assessment tool approved under section 82; and*
e) ACFB reasonably believes that the student displays that competence;

 Please note: The assessment tool used by ACFB and approved by the Department is the Core Skills Profile for Adults (CSPA) tool. All assessments are conducted with honesty and integrity. CSPA is an online assessment of foundation skills that assesses and reports on learner's skills instantly with reports on candidate performance available immediately after completion of the assessments for use as evidence of competency.*

[^] The results of assessing a student's competence in reading and numeracy will be provided:

- (a) to the student as soon as practicable after the assessment; and*
(b) to the Secretary in the form, manner and by the time requested by the Secretary.

If we detect the applicant may have difficulty with the course due to lower than required communication or core skills level, ESL, has a special learning need and/or disability and/or has not completed any previous qualifications, ACFB may request an applicant completes a Core Skills Assessment, irrespective of having completed a qualification level listed above (a, b & c above), so that ACFB may gain a better understanding of their Core Skills level, training needs and academic suitability.

If ACFB feels that a person would not be able to cope with the workload, language barriers or course requirements, they will be notified prior to enrolment and provided with other opportunities or avenues to assist them. ACFB may provide them with information from the ELS teaching department at Box Hill TAFE who can recommend courses for people with Core Skills difficulties.

Prior to enrolment, if a person considers them self to have a disability or impairment, they should notify ACFB so we can take them through the course details and provided them with a realistic course overview to suit their specific needs. This may include (for example):

- modification of the course delivery / structure
- additional support from an internal mentor
- the change from on-line assessments to hardcopy (or vice versa)
- on-going assistance from ACFB's Student Support Officers
- any internal support or assistance that is within ACFB's power to provide will be offered to the potential student

This can be done either through an informal meeting (with a follow-up email documenting what is involved in the course and any changes from ACFB or requirements from the applicant). Or a formal meeting with the applicant and / or their support person / case worker.

This information is available on ACFB's website at: <http://www.acfb.edu.au/faqs>
